

PLEASE JOIN US

FOR A DISCUSSION OF RESIDENTIAL OPTIONS

AVAILABLE TO NJ RESIDENTS WITH ID/DD

Come learn about...

- Federal changes affecting housing options for individuals with ID/DD
- The current housing landscape in NJ for individuals with ID/DD
- The Inaugural Report issued in March 2019 by NJ's Ombudsman for Individuals with ID/DD and Their Families

October 30, 2019

7-10pm

Room 32A

Princeton Neuroscience Inst.

69 South Drive Princeton, NJ

Guest Speaker AMY LUTZ

Amy - a mother of five children, one of which has a severe form of autism - is an advocate and writer, whose work on autism has been featured in various national publications, including The Atlantic, Slate, Babble and Psychology Today. Amy is a founder of EASI Foundation and serves on the IACC Housing Work Group, as well as on the Board of the National Council on Severe Autism; and her advocacy has taken her before the FDA, IACC and ISEN. Amy is currently pursuing a PhD in History and Sociology of Science at University of Pennsylvania.

Meet Paul Aronsohn!

NJ's Ombudsman for Individuals with ID/DD and Their Families will be on hand to meet families and answer questions.

Speaker

LISA McCAULEY PARLES, ESQ

Lisa practices disability law and is a partner with Parles Rekem LLP.